Allott (Nigeria) Ltd. in association with Allott & Lomax UK is currently undertaking detailed engineering design of infrastructural facilities and providing solid waste management in four major towns in Benue State, Nigeria. The four towns are: Makurdi, Gboko, Idah and Otukpo. The engineering design covers:

- Selected road and drainage improvements in the four project Towns.
- Road drainage and other environmental improvements in upgrading a higher density area of central Makurdi.
- Improvement and rehabilitation of water supplies and extension of distribution in the four project towns.

The solid waste management involves review of existing organisation for undertaking collection and disposal of solid waste and provision of recommendations for improvements in respect of disposal facilities together with staffing and training requirements. Tender documents were prepared for supply of new equipment and refurbishment of existing equipment.
